

DO WE NEED GOD TO BE MORAL?

A dialogue on morality, religion and evolution

Jeff Schloss T.B. Walker Chair of Natural and Behavioral Sciences at Westmont College

Frans de Waal C.H. Candler
Professor of Primate Behavior at Emory University

Thursday, April 10
4:30-6 pm

Sonata Room
Gordon Dining & Event Center
UW-Madison

From the time of Darwin until the present, a fascinating controversy has raged over evolutionary theory's implications for our understanding of the origin and nature of human morality. Drawing on contemporary evolutionary thought and recent research into the prosocial tendencies of primates, de Waal and Schloss will discuss a number of questions at the center of this controversy.

isthmussociety.org

Co-sponsors: John Templeton Foundation, Lubar Institute for the Study of the Abrahamic Religions, UW-Madison Department of Zoology

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC